Here are entered works on variations in the style of writing in the past and especially with ancient and medieval handwriting.

Works on written languages as a form of communication or discourse are entered under Written communication.

Works on the process or result of recording language in the form of conventionalized visible marks or graphic signs on a surface are entered under Writing. Works on the writing of a particular language are entered under the name of the language with subdivisions Alphabet and Writing, e.g. Greek language--Alphabet; Egyptian language--Writing. Works on systems of writing used by several peoples are entered under Writing, followed by the name of the system, e.g. Writing, Arabic.

General and comparative works on the Semitic alphabet and its ancient and modern derivatives, or with similar series of characters employed to represent the sounds of a language, are entered under Alphabet.

[JZ6374 (International relations)]
[U270 (Military science)]
Here are entered works on military forces that conduct operations with the consent of all major parties to a dispute, designed to monitor and facilitate implementation of an agreement and support diplomatic efforts to reach a long-term political settlement.
This heading may be divided geographically by names of regions or countries where these forces operate. Works on the participation in, or provision of, peacekeeping forces by a specific region or country are entered under Peacekeeping forces qualified by region or nationality, e.g., Peacekeeping forces, Australian, with further subdivision by place, if any, in which the forces operate.
