

Quotations and Maxims H 1969

BACKGROUND: The subdivision -Quotations is used under classes of persons, ethnic groups, and names of individual persons and families for collections or discussions of quotations by or about the group, person, or family. It is also used under the uniform titles of individual sacred works for collections or discussions of quotations from or about these works. The subdivision -Quotations, maxims, etc., is used under names of places and under topical headings for collections or discussions of quotations, maxims, etc., on these subjects. These subdivisions are coded as $v subfields for collections of quotations or as $x subfields for discussions of quotations. This instruction sheet provides guidelines for assigning these subdivisions.

1. -Quotations.

a. Classes of persons and ethnic groups. Assign the free-floating subdivision -Quotations under classes of persons and ethnic groups for collections and/or discussions of quotations of, or about, the group. Examples:

650 #0 $a African Americans $v Quotations.
650 #0 $a Statesmen $x Quotations.

If appropriate for the work, interpose a topical or geographic subdivision between the heading for the class of persons or ethnic group and the subdivision -Quotations.
Examples:
