

24809

DEDICATED TO OUR BRAVE BOYS IN THE FIELD.

WHAT WILL THEY SAY IN MICHIGAN.

INCIDENT.—After the sacrifice and repulse of the heroic Michigan 8th, from Tower Hill, on James Island, a dying soldier raised his head and faintly whispered to his comrade, "What will they say in Michigan, when they hear of our deeds this day."

Words by JOHN WILLIAMS, Esq.,
M. R. L. S. London, England.

MUSIC BY J. HENRY WHITTEMORE.

Published by J. HENRY WHITTEMORE, 179 Jefferson Av.,

MEERHILL BLOCK, DETROIT.

ROOT & CADY, Chicago.

S. BRAINARD, Cleveland.

H. TOLMAN & CO., Boston.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1862, by J. Henry Whittemore, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Michigan.

M 1640
W

"WHAT WILL THEY SAY IN MICHIGAN"

Words by J WILLIAMS Esq.
M.R.S.S. London Eng.

Music by J. H. WHITEMORE.

Symphony.

1. What will they say in Mich-i-gan, When the sto-ry
 2. What will they say in Mich-i-gan, The ma-tron
 3. What will they say in Mich-i-gan, Our names both

there is told Of deeds of might on Charles-ton's height and the maid Whose wid-ow'd, with-er'd hearts have found night, and day, Are in their hearts, and on their lips,

Done by the brave and bold. The South so proud at
 The price that each has paid; The gladness of their
 When they laugh, or weep, or pray. They wait — and we are noon-tide hour, So humble ere set of sun, They'll say 'twas like Old Mich-i-gan, They'll homes they've lost, But share our glory won. They'll say in dear Old Mich-i-gan, They'll ready; Then on-ward to the fight, Who droops, or fears, Our Country cheers, And say 'twas nobly done. They'll say 'twas like Old Mich-i-gan, They'll say 'twas nobly done.

 say 'twas nobly done. They'll say in dear Old Mich-i-gan, They'll say 'twas nobly done.
 God defend the right? Who droops, or fears, Our Country cheers, And God defend the right?

ad lib.

ad lib.

TENOR
1. The South so proud at noontide hour, So humble e'er set of sun; They'll say 'twas like Old

ALTO
2. The gladness of their homes they ^{we}lost, But share our glory won; They'll say in dear Old

BARitone
3. They wait and we are rea- .dy Then onward to the fight Who droops, or fears, Our

BASE

Repeat Chorus pp

Mich. i. -gan, They'll say 'twas nobly done.

Mich. i. -gan, They'll say 'twas nobly done.

Coun-try cheers, And "God defend the right".

Repeat Chorus pp