

AMERICA FIRST DAY

SUNDAY, JUNE 29, 1924

AMERICAN IDEALS

Equality of Opportunity
Universal Education
Religious Liberty
Majority Rule
Adequate Reward for Labor
Respect for the Home
Abolition of Caste and Class
Property Rights Respected
Freedom of Speech and the Press
Regard for Childhood, Old Age, and Womanhood

Every American should place these fundamental truths where he can see them each day. They are the civic and political religion of this Great Nation. They form the basis for all laws that are enacted in the United States.

In every section of West Virginia religious patriotic services will be held the Sunday prior to July Fourth. Good Citizens should attend and assist with these meetings.
